Byrd 7th Grader Wins District Geographic Bee

Duncanville ISD Geographic Bee Winners:
Bronson Hooper, 3rd Place; Seth Sikes, 1st Place; Dr. Deborah Cron, Interim Superintendent; Sebastian Nava, 2nd Place

Seth Sikes, a 7th grade student from Byrd Middle School, correctly answered the most questions to win Duncanville ISD's district geographic bee Wednesday, January 13. Campus winners from each school will take written assessments to be sent to the National Geographic Society. Students who earn the highest national scores will participate in the official National Geographic Bee this spring. Kennemer eighth grader Sebastian Nava took home second place. Brandenburg fourth grader Bronson Hooper finished in second place.

Kennemer Volleyball Team Scores Perfect Season

The Kennemer volleyball team completed its 7th Grade "A" volleyball season undefeated. The middle school girls went 8-0 in district play and won the end-of-season district tournament to finish their flawless season. Members of the team were: Laila Dotson, Cameron Boyd, Keandra Sykes, Samaurya Mahone, Kiara Bowling, Trinity Bryant, and Karrington Elder. The volleyball coaches at Kennemer are Jwan Herron and Zanetta Floyd.
