District Shines Brightly at Duncanville Holiday Parade

Duncanville ISD used 'The Force' to create a Star Wars-themed float for the city's "Christmas in the Stars" holiday parade on Friday, December 4. The district's entry featured students dressed in Santa hats brandishing blue light sabers, a video screen playing fight scenes from the Star Wars series and a huge reproduction of an AT-

In his 23 years of coaching varsity baseball at Duncanville High School, Rombach developed the program into one of the most highly recognized in the state of Texas.

The Duncanville ISD Board of Trustees recently approved the renaming of DHS Panther Field in Coach Rombach's honor to celebrate his historic 39 year career. A dedication ceremony will be held in the spring.

Superintendent Search Aims for Spring Hire

The search for Duncanville ISD's new superintendent is underway and is being conducted by legal firm, Leasor Crass. In November, the district sought feedback from employees and community stakeholders at several meetings and created an online survey to determine the attributes for an ideal superintendent candidate.

The schedule for the superintendent selection process is:

Mid January: Deadline for candidate applications

Late January: First round of interviews

February: Second round of interviews

March: Approval of superintendent's contract

April: Tentative date for new superintendent to start
