DHS Band Spends Summer Preparing for 'Trip' to Paris

While the rest of the world is hibernating inside with the air conditioners cranked up, the Duncanville High School Marching Band is outside practicing several hours a day in the 100-degree, Texas heat. Band Director David Brandon says this year's band is the largest ever for DHS – including more than 400 students marching and 70 members of the High Hats dance team.

This year's show is called 'Postcards from Paris,' which will feature several vignettes based on the theme including an Eiffel Tower formation. Brandon says while maintaining Duncanville's reputation as a band powerhouse, his primary goal is to be a good teacher. "Anything we do has to be geared toward students learning the process of success," Brandon said. Read more.
